30 August-3 September 2026, Tuscania (VT)
Viola da Gamba Masterclass & Early Music Ensemble

An Exclusive Opportunity for viola da gamba players An intensive and highly specialized training program dedicated to viola da gamba and early music performance, designed for young musicians aiming to explore historical repertoire and performance practice under the guidance of an internationally renowned artist.
Course Structure Each active participant is guaranteed a minimum of four individual lessons, alongside ensemble activities. The course is open to soloists and chamber ensembles with historical instruments and is also open to modern instrument players interested in historically informed performance practice.
A minimum number of participants (4 students) is required for course activation.
Training Focus The program focuses on the study of early music repertoire and historically informed performance practice, including style, articulation, phrasing, ornamentation and continuo praxis.
Special emphasis is placed on ensemble work through the Early Music Ensemble, offering participants the opportunity to develop listening, interaction and stylistic coherence in a collective context.
Final Concert and Certification All active participants will perform in final concerts and will receive an official diploma of attendance. Participants will also take part in the final performances of the Early Music Ensemble.

Admission Criteria Selection is based on curriculum evaluation and available places.
